

The week of March 14, 2010

Sunday March 14 4th Sunday in Lent	The Gospel: Luke 15:1-3,11-32 The son who was lost has been found. Question of the Week: How have you or your household welcomed back someone who had been distant or absent from you? As a household, continue to observe the Season of Lent, but today, take a break and celebrate Sunday.
Monday March 15	Spiritual goal for this week: To grow able to hear God's voice echo in the depths of my soul when I awaken in the night.
Tuesday March 16	Remember today the ashes with which we began Lent. The most important thing in life is Love. When we die, the only thing we take with us is the love in our hearts.
Wednesday March 17 The Annunciation	Feast today! St. Patrick St. Patrick's Day is famous for partying and merriment. You sent the great bishop Patrick to the people of Ireland to share his faith and to spend his life in loving service. May our lives bear witness to the faith we profess, and our love bring others to the peace and joy of Your Gospel. (The Collect from today's Mass)
Thursday March 18	Find a time today for silence. Let it well up around you.
Friday March 19 We abstain from meat today	Feast today! St. Joseph St. Joseph was the husband of Mary and father of Jesus. We honor him as a patron of workers. "Generations of fathers have followed in his footsteps, & imprinted on their children's souls the inestimable value of faith..." John Paul II. Angelus message, March 2002.
Saturday March 20	If you have not done so yet, plan to go to Confession this weekend as you prepare for Holy Week and Easter.
