by Bill Huebsch

5.5 X 8.5" -- 160 pages

It's time to move from the theory about Lifelong Faith Formation to the actual plans for implementation. In this fine new work, Bill Huebsch does just that. Calling on his work with dozens of dioceses and thousands of parishes over the past years, the author is able to lay out in plain English a step-by-step method for doing the pastoral planning in each parish needed to start and sustain lifelong formation!

No two parishes are alike. Lifelong faith formation is not a program you can adopt as a parish. But there is a process into which you can enter and out of which comes your own unique, particular plan. Whether you're a large suburban parish with more staff than the diocesan center, or a small rural parish sharing one pastor in a cluster of three with no paid staff, and whether your a multi-cultural parish balancing languages and cultural differences or an inner city parish serving the poor and homeless, Dreams and Visions will open for you a new horizon and give you new hope.
