Description

by Ray Noll

6 X 9" -- 189 pages

Includes CD loaded with ancillary material!

Ray Noll urges readers to "stretch" their understanding of the sacraments by proposing some interesting "what if" suggestions for pastoral practice and thought-provoking questions both for review and further discussion. An attached CD-ROM contains articles and passages by recognized theologians who have played a major role in reflecting on contemporary sacramental theology.

Ideal for all students in worship and liturgy, as well as for those studying sacraments are part of an overall course of theological study.
