

Let Us Pray

In the name of the Creator God,
and of Jesus Christ,
and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

THE THIRD STEP

Turn your heart toward God.

Jesus, Friend and Companion,

I begin now my third step on this journey.

Here I am challenged to see all that I have,
and to be grateful for it.

If I have too much, let me be honest
and willing to be content.

If I have too little,

help me to seek what I need with a pure heart
and not become greedy as I gather what is needed for life.

Pause to consider quietly all the many possessions now in your care.

I pray O Lord,

for the ability to detach myself from possessions,
and to see my own worth

as separate from the things I own.

Give me the great gift of a satisfied heart

so that I can seek what is most important:

love

forgiveness

and peace.

Now turn to the third step and continue your journey.
